THE COMPANION CALENDAR.

It is said that the expense of making the Companion Art Calendar for 1897 was so great that had it been published in the usual quantity it could not be sold for less than one dollar. Four beautiful female figures are reproduced on four folding pages. Each figure is lithographed in twelve colors, being a true reproduction of the original water-color painting, which was selected because of its excellence of design and charm of color and tone. The size of each of the four folding pages is 10½ by 6 inches.

It is by far the best piece of color work the Companion has ever offered. Both as a calendar and as a gem of the lithographer's art, it is so attractive that it becomes a valuable addition to the mantel or centre-table of any room. It is given free to all new subscribers sending $1.75 to the Companion for the year 1897, who receive also the paper free from the time the subscription is received till January 1, 1897.

Celebrating in 1897 its seventy-first birthday, the Companion offers its readers many exceptionally brilliant features. Fully two hundred of the most famous men and women of both continents have contributed to the next year's volume of the paper. For free Illustrated Prospectus address,

A SELE-SUPPORTING WIDOW.

About a year ago my husband died and left me in rather destitute circumstances. Just after our marriage his health failed, and for that reason he was unable to lay by for a rainy day. A friend of mine from Illinois called on me and told me how much money she was making by selling the Iron City Dish Washer, and said she thought I could at least make a good living by doing the same. I wrote the Iron City Dish Washer Co., Station A, Pittsburg, Pa., for a sample. Since then I have been making a splendid living for my children and myself, and still attend to my household duties. Last month I cleared over $200 and am delighted with my success. The Dish Washer works like a charm, and the distasteful work of washing dishes can be done in a few moments without soiling the hands a particle. Anyone who sees it work wants one at once, so they are no trouble to sell. I would advise anyone out of employment to write for full particulars, as they started me in business and will do the same for others.
